

Enrichment Lecture on (4/11/2025)

A Enrichment Lecture on the theme “Glimpses of Different Childhoods in India” was organized in the KIRAS. The seminar aimed to highlight the diversity of childhood experiences across India and to develop an understanding of how socio-economic, cultural, geographical, and educational factors shape a child's upbringing. Teachers, students, and educationists actively participated in the session. Key Highlights of the Seminar were such as Childhood in Urban and Rural India, Childhood in Tribal Communities, Childhood of Marginalised and Migrant Children, Childhood of Affluent Families, Children with Special Needs, Street Children and Children in Conflict Zones

Glimpses of Extension Lecture

The poster for the Enrichment Lecture features a green and orange background. At the top, it reads "KALKA INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH AND ADVANCED STUDIES" in white text on an orange banner. Below this, the title "ENRICHMENT LECTURE" is in large, bold, yellow letters, followed by "Glimpses of Childhood" in purple letters. A circular portrait of Prof. M.C. Sharma, a man in a white shirt and dark tie, is centered. Below the portrait, the text "By- Prof. M.C. Sharma" is in orange on a yellow background. The date "04 November 2025" and "Tuesday" are in white, followed by "Time - 12:00 PM" and "Venue - Multipurpose Hall" in white. At the bottom, there are illustrations of colorful alphabet blocks, four cartoon children standing in a row, and three more cartoon children on the right.
